

Farhana McIntyre B.S., SLPA

Speech Language Pathology Assistant

Farhana is a speech-language pathology assistant (SLPA) with a bachelor's degree in Speech-Language Pathology from the University of the Pacific. She has experience working with individuals ages 2 to 24, with a strong passion for early childhood intervention. Farhana is dedicated to helping young children develop essential communication skills, fostering their growth through evidence-based techniques and individualized support. She brings a warm and engaging approach to her work, ensuring that every child she works with reaches their full potential.

