

Amy Nguyen, RBT

Registered Behavior Technician

Amy is a dedicated RBT with over 2 years of experience in applied behavior analysis (ABA). While working in the field, Amy is also pursuing a Bachelor of Science in Biochemistry at California State University, Sacramento. Passionate about helping individuals with autism and developmental disabilities, Amy works closely with BCBAs to implement treatment plans while creating a fun and engaging environment that fosters growth and independence.

